Writing

I think author meant that we waste a lot of time procrastinating and we should stop and do something else. ²⁰

I think that procrastination is to time-wasting activity, but we mostly do it in idle state, where we don't have anything to do. We don't even think about hesitating or avoiding it, because we don't have anything else to do, well, in most cases we don't, but sometime we just want to relax ~~to~~ from work or school or housework, even if we have something to do. ^{65/115}

I have procrastinated for little bit of time, sometimes I do homework a bit late, laying on bed instead of doing chores or something else.

In my conclusion I think that ~~to~~ we should avoid doing it, it's not healthy, even though it feels good, it's like chips, even though you get a bit of enjoyment, it's not good for you. ⁵⁵
